

Highlights of NARI Member Benefits

- Complimentary company listing under “Find a Professional Remodeler” on NARI.org. Remodeling company members are encouraged to choose up to 10 specialties listed once you sign into the Members Only section. NARI members also can create an enhanced listing, including a company description, logo and project image.
- NARI Education and Certification programs help you run your business more efficiently and are also a great marketing tool. Learn more by clicking on the Pro Development tab at NARI.org.
- NARI University is designed to help you make your company more profitable, navigate the critical issues facing the remodeling industry and identify industry and product trends. Education is provided through discussion groups and Webinars. Find a full schedule and register at NARI.org/industry/development/nari-university/.
- NARI lobbies for its members as small businesses within the remodeling community. NARI members are kept informed of efforts via the “NARI on the Hill” e-newsletter. NARI’s legislative initiatives are available under the Government Affairs tab on the Members Only side of NARI.org.
- NARI’s Business Tools help members save time and money. The program includes The Home Depot Rebate program, the Fiat Chrysler Automobiles (FCA) Discount Program and GuildQuality. NARI members also receive access to 20+ deeply discounted business service programs through Savings4members. Find out specifics about discounts at NARI.org/industry/resources/business-tools/.
- NARI members receive weekly business intelligence via NARI’s e-newsletter, NARI Newswatch, and the NARI blog, blog.nari.org.
